About the artist

Grégoire Vandestappen (2006)
Knokke - Madrid - Brabant wallon

"I create sculptures that stem from emotions and personal experiences, which I try to express through my work. Everyone is free to interpret and make them their own..."

He's been sculpting since he was 9! His creations have already been exhibited in Chaumont-Gistoux, Knokke, and even Madrid. He's always driven by the same passion: "I've always loved tinkering. In fact, I always start with an emotion that I try to translate through my creations."
